WE'RE HERE FOR AUSTRALIAN FARMERS

1. Introduction and Overview

This Charter sets out the structure, role and responsibilities of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (Committee) of Ruralco Holdings Limited (Ruralco).

2. Objective

The Committee provides advice and support to the Board:

- (a) to ensure that the Board is comprised of persons with a suitable range of skills, expertise and experience;
- (b) to ensure that remuneration policies, strategies and practices for directors and executives are transparent, consistent with broader market practice and, in the case of executives, reward the creation of value for shareholders

3. Structure

The Committee shall consist of no less than three (3) members, all being non-executive directors and with a majority of independent directors.

The Ruralco Board shall appoint the Committee and its Chair.

Management and external advisers may attend meetings by invitation of the committee Chair, and they may participate in discussions, but they do not vote.

The Chair of the Ruralco Board has a standing invitation to attend Committee meetings and Directors who are not Committee members may also attend Committee meetings.

4. Responsibilities – Nomination and Board Performance

4.1 Board composition

- Review and make recommendations to the Board on:
 - Updates to Ruralco's board skills matrix to support the appropriate mix of skills, expertise and experience for the Board to discharge its responsibilities effectively;
 - Board size, composition and tenure of directors;
 - The appointment of directors and the effectiveness of the processes followed;
 - The removal of directors (noting that this matter can only be decided by shareholders);
 - Induction protocols for new directors and the effectiveness of the processes followed; and
 - Continuing education of directors.
- Identify potential candidates to fill vacancies on the Ruralco Board. In selecting and recommending the appointment of new directors, the Committee will:
 - assess candidates with regard to Ruralco's Board skills matrix and diversity objectives;

- engage external consultants where necessary to assist in the selection process of suitable candidates.

4.2 Board Performance

- Review and make recommendations to the Board on the annual performance of the Board, and its Committees, including the provision of assistance to its Chair (if required) in reviewing the performance of individual directors.
- Co-ordinate the Board's review of its Chair's performance – annually.
- Develop and review Board and executive succession plans to enable an appropriate balance of skills, diversity, experience and expertise to be maintained.
- Review the time commitment required for non-executive directors and whether directors are meeting that commitment.
- Review and consider conflicts of interest faced by Ruralco directors and make recommendations to the Board.

4.3 Diversity

- Make recommendations to the Board regarding:
 - Updates to Ruralco's policy in relation to employee and Board diversity;
 - strategies to facilitate greater diversity in management and leadership roles; and
 - new ways to entrench diversity as a cultural priority across the organisation; and
 - measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, as well as diversity generally (which includes age, ethnicity, culture and religion)
- Assess annually achievement against diversity objectives including representation of women at all levels of the organisation and assess the effectiveness of related initiatives designed to identify, support and develop talented women with leadership potential.

5. Responsibilities - Remuneration

5.1 Remuneration policy

The Committee will review and make recommendations to the Board in relation to policies and practices for:

- Remuneration of directors;
- Executive remuneration including fixed and variable components with both a short term and long term focus
- Succession planning for executive positions;
- Incentive schemes and related performance measures (financial and non-financial);

- Recruitment, retention and termination policies for executives; and
- Superannuation arrangements.
- The Committee's objectives in determining the remuneration and incentive framework are to:
 - encourage executives to align their interests with those of shareholders and, where appropriate, trading members;
 - align individual and team reward with business performance in both the short term and long term;
 - encourage executives to perform to their fullest capacity;
 - be business focused and flexible;
 - be competitive and cost effective in each relevant employment market; and
 - be internally consistent.

5.2 Remuneration for non-executive directors

The Committee makes recommendations to the Board annually on the remuneration of non-executive directors, taking into account the guidelines listed in the ASX Principles, as well as:

- competitive market practices and trends;
- the level of complexity of the Ruralco business; and
- the commitments required of each non-executive director.

The remuneration of non-executive directors is structured separately from that of executive Directors and senior executives. Non-executive directors:

- receive a cash fee for service;
- have no entitlement to any performance-based remuneration or participation in any share-based incentive schemes; and
- are not entitled to retain a retirement benefit beyond the statutory superannuation obligations.

The Committee may from time to time seek independent advice in relation to the remuneration of non-executive Board members.

5.3 Remuneration for the Managing Director and senior executives

- The Committee works with the Managing Director to determine the appropriate level and structure of remuneration of the senior executive team based on the guiding principal that executive remuneration is to be set at levels and structured to attract, motivate, reward and retain good performers to drive the business effectively, and taking into consideration the guidelines listed in the ASX Principles.
- The Committee makes recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of the Managing Director, including any incentive schemes, equity based remuneration, superannuation arrangements and other employee provisions. As part of this annual process, the Committee gathers and reviews relevant information, comparative remuneration, individual performance and, if required, obtains external advice.

- Performance of the Managing Director and senior executives is reviewed annually in accordance with policies and processes determined by the Committee.
- Each year the Committee reviews the remuneration of executives on the recommendation of the Managing Director (other than in relation to the Managing Director). The Committee's review considers individual performance, comparative remuneration in the market and where appropriate, external advice.

5.4 Remuneration Report

The Committee:

- ensures the Remuneration Report contains relevant information on Ruralco's remuneration policy, practices, and strategy in accordance with applicable accounting and legal requirements; and
- recommends to the Board the content of the Remuneration Report to be included in Ruralco's annual financial report.

6. Resources

6.1 Internal resources

The Committee and each Committee Member, shall have direct access to appropriate internal resources to assist in the discharge of the responsibilities set out in this Charter, including without limitation the Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer, Company Secretary and General Manager - People. Administrative support is available upon request.

6.2 External resources

The Committee acknowledges that there will be occasions where matters of particular complexity or sensitivity warrant the use of external advisers. The Committee shall have access to appropriate funds to engage external advisers or specialists to advise on all matters relevant to the discharge of the responsibilities set out in this Charter.

7. Administration arrangements

7.1 Meetings

The Committee will meet at least four times per year.

The Chair must call a meeting if asked to do so by the Chair of the Board, and will decide if a meeting is required if requested by another member.

7.2 Planning

The Committee will develop a forward meeting schedule that includes the dates, location, and proposed agenda items for each meeting for the forthcoming year, that cover all the responsibilities outlined in this charter.

7.3 Quorum

The quorum for meetings of the Committee is two persons or if the majority of the Committee is greater than two persons, then that number of persons.

7.4 Secretariat

The Company Secretary will provide secretariat support to the Committee.
The Company Secretary will prepare minutes of each Committee meeting, for signature by the Chair.

7.5 Conflicts of interest

At the beginning of each Nomination and Remuneration Committee meeting, members must declare any potential or actual conflicts of interest that may apply to specific matters on the meeting agenda. Where required by the Chair, the member will be excused from the meeting or from the Committee's consideration of the relevant agenda item(s). Details of potential or actual conflicts of interest declared by members and action taken will be appropriately minuted.

7.6 Reviews

The Committee must conduct an annual review of its performance and effectiveness, inviting comments from all members of the Board.

The Board will review the role of the Committee and this charter from time to time. The Board will take into account the Committee's recommendations on its role and charter.
